AMEND Senate Bill No. 396*

House Bill No. 1801

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1.

(a) Section 1, § 2-10-122(1), of Chapter No. 102 of the Public Acts of 2005, is amended by deleting the first sentence and by substituting instead the following:

The term "consulting services" with respect to an official in the legislative branch or an official in the executive branch means services to advise or assist a person or entity in influencing legislative or administrative action, as such term is defined in § 3-6-102(11), relative to Tennessee state government. The term "consulting services" with respect to an official in the legislative branch or an official in the executive branch also means services to advise or assist a person or entity in maintaining, applying for, soliciting or entering into a contract with the state of Tennessee.

(b) Section 1, § 2-10-122(2), of Chapter No. 102 of the Public Acts of 2005, is amended by deleting the first sentence and by substituting instead the following:

The term "consulting services" with respect to an elected municipal or county official, including a member-elect of a municipal or county legislative body, means services to advise or assist a person or entity in influencing legislative or administrative action, as such term is defined in § 3-6-102(11), relative to the municipality or county represented by such official. The term "consulting services" with respect to an elected municipal or county official, including a member-elect of a municipal or county legislative body, also means services to advise or assist a person or entity in maintaining, applying for, soliciting or entering into a contract with the municipality or county represented by such official.

SECTION 2.

(a) Section 1, § 2-10-128(a), of Chapter No. 102 of the Public Acts of 2005, is amended by deleting the language “Any member of the general assembly shall report annually in writing to the registry of election finance prior to February 1:” and by substituting instead the following:

Each member of the general assembly and the member’s spouse shall report annually in writing to the registry of election finance, prior to April 15, the following information for the prior calendar year:

(b) Section 1, § 2-10-128(a)(1), of Chapter No. 102 of the Public Acts of 2005, is amended by deleting the language “or a spouse residing with such person,”.

(c) Section 1, § 2-10-128(a)(1), of Chapter No. 102 of the Public Acts of 2005, is further amended by inserting the following sentences immediately preceding the final sentence:

If a member or spouse's ownership of a business enterprise's securities provides income of more than two hundred dollars ($200), then the name and address of the business enterprise shall be stated and not the name and address of an investment brokerage firm or other fiduciary that may possess or manage the securities on behalf of the member or spouse; however, if the securities are publicly traded, then, in lieu of stating the address of the business enterprise, it is permissible to name the exchange at which the securities are customarily marketed. If a member or spouse's ownership of shares of a mutual fund provides income of more than two hundred dollars ($200), then the name and address of the mutual fund shall be stated and not the name and address of each business enterprise whose securities are owned by the mutual fund. For purposes of this subdivision (1), income shall be reported for the calendar year in which it is received.

SECTION 3. The provisions of Chapter No. 102 of the Public Acts of 2005, as amended by this act, are hereby re-enacted.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect on July 2, 2005, the public welfare requiring it.
